²The University of Arizona requires second language proficiency at the second semester level to graduate with a BAS degree. No coursework is required and this requirement can be fulfilled with a proficiency test:

<https://catalog.arizona.edu/policy/second-language-requirement-undergraduate-degrees>. Students can also elect to CLEP the second language if credit is needed to satisfy degree requirements. CLEP details can be found here: <https://catalog.arizona.edu/policy/college-level-examination-program-clep>

³Units from a completed CCAF AAS transfer in as a block, satisfying all general education requirements with the exception of the Second Semester Language Proficiency. Students can transfer up to 75 units from CCAF and have a minimum of 45 units remaining to complete the BAS. 42 of those units must be upper division (300/400 level).

⁴This table is based on a typical 60 unit transfer from CCAF. However, students may apply an additional 15 units of CCAF (or Arizona community college) credit to their BAS degree.
